

We need to continue to have internet access to utilize our district improvement plan and maintain our current school district practices to better communicate with our students and parents.